

1144 PLEADINGS, PRACTICE AND PROCESS AT LAW. [ART. 75.

to divide by ballot said number of jurors into two panels of petit jurors, and may take such order for the regulating the attendance of said panels as the said court shall see fit; and the said court may direct talesmen to be summoned in said cause or causes whenever necessary.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 75, sec. 77. 1868, ch. 180.

100. In all criminal cases removed as aforesaid, where the party to be tried therein is detained in jail, the party so detained shall not be removed until the first day of the session of the court to which said case shall be removed.

Ibid sec 78. 1868, ch. 180.

101. Any of the said circuit courts, to which any cause or causes may be removed under the preceding sections, shall allow such compensation, not exceeding the sum of forty dollars in any one case, to the State's attorney, for his services in appearing to or trying said cause or causes, as they may deem just and proper, to be borne and paid by the county from which said cause or causes may be removed, or by the city of Baltimore, as the case may be.

Ibid. sec. 79. 1806, ch 90, sec. 9. 1853, ch. 10.

102. If it shall appear to any court to which any civil or criminal case has been removed, that the transcript of the record in said case is not a true transcript of the record or proceedings had in the court from which the said case has been removed, it shall be the duty of the court to which the case has been removed forthwith to order and direct that the said imperfect transcript shall be delivered to the clerk of the court from which the same was sent; and it shall be the duty of said clerk receiving such transcript so to him returned, to correct the same forthwith, noting at the end thereof the corrections so made, or to prepare a new transcript of the said record, which shall be correct in all its parts.

Ibid. sec. 80. 1853, ch. 10.

103. The court to which any imperfect transcript is sent shall have power to order the delivery thereof to the clerk of the court from which the case was removed as often as may be necessary to
